

For over 20 years, the Sharing Brings Hope Consolidated Charitable Campaign has raised donations in your schools and offices. Every Spring, LAUSD’s staff, teachers, and students, and their families contribute time, passion, and donations to the Sharing Brings Hope Campaign. LAUSD employees are generous, giving to people who really care about their schools, their communities and the people who live in them.

The Asian Pacific Community Fund (APCF) is a network of 52 community organizations serving over 250,000 people annually in a total of 28 Asian languages plus English and Spanish. As the only Asian and Pacific Islander community-based fund in Southern California, APCF focuses on providing culturally sensitive programs and services to meet the complex and diverse needs of the Asian and Pacific Islander community.

The Brotherhood Crusade founded in 1968, has been dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for families and youth throughout Los Angeles. We provide free direct supportive services to multi-cultural programs that address health, education, social welfare, economic development and youth development issues. We promote health and wellness, enhanced educational opportunities and free after school programs. www.brotherhoodcrusade.org

Community Health Charities has over 50 health oriented charities that provide patient services, community education and medical research funding to benefit the diverse communities of Los Angeles. Our member charities cover the health needs of everyone from infants to seniors. Visit our website at www.healthmattersatwork.org to learn the full scope of locations of free and low-cost summer camp programs for children with chronic or debilitating health conditions, locations of local support groups, financial resources and health information.

EarthShare California represents over 80 environmental agencies state-wide. Our mission is to protect, support, and improve California’s natural heritage of clean air, safe water, diverse wildlife, and healthy communities and families by funding our member environmental groups.

The Kathryn Kurka Children’s Health Fund assists LAUSD students, with limited or no other financial resources, to obtain vision care, glasses, dental and medical services.

The LAUSD Employee Sponsored Scholarship Fund provides graduating seniors with financial assistance that allows them to enter colleges and universities.

The Los Angeles Trust for Children’s Health (The L.A. Trust) is the 501(C)3 non-profit that supports LAUSD’s school health programs, including providing crucial support to the district’s school-based Wellness Centers, developing a district-wide oral health initiative and advancing school health policy both at the local and state-wide levels.

The United Latinx Fund (ULF) funds programs that serve the Latino community in the areas of education-in particular non-profit organizations that offer after school activities that help keep youth safe and healthy; and health & wellness- particularly funding organizations that are helping to prevent diabetes, obesity, and heart disease in the Latino community.

United Negro College Fund is the nation’s oldest and most successful minority higher education assistance organization. UNCF awards more financial assistance to African American students than any other entity beside the government.

United Teacher’s Educational Foundation prepares, trains, and guarantees that teachers have the skills to best instruct their students.

United Way of Greater Los Angeles’ mission is to improve the quality of life for all in Greater Los Angeles by “creating pathways out of poverty”.
